

Chamber Minutes 3/21/18

Attendance: Nikki Zielinski, Rob Fitch, Connie Kesler, Ron and Lisa Bailey, Susan Korte, Cece Davis, Melanie Vining, Ryan Zollman, Judy Mault

Ryan Zollman was double checking that he was going to announce and hand out the awards for his part of First Responder, ect. At the Firemans Ball

Rob Fitch will not be available to announce the awards on behalf of Chamber. Cece Davis will be contacting winners and announcing at the Firemans Ball

Judy Mault:

Dog trials to be held at the Rodeo grounds on May 5 & 6th, there will be 4 classes and she stated there were water problems and no advertising. The chamber committee let her know that she will have to pay for advertising to be put in the newspaper. Also, Nikki Zielinski will be talking with Earl Henderson on the water situation on the North side of rodeo grounds. Judy also said that she will need lots of volunteers. Cece Davis talked to Dave Armstrong about vending at the dog trials both days and he said he would donate all proceeds back to Chamber. Chamber needs to pay for the meat and sides. Cece will also follow up with Heather Paradis about the insurance and make sure it will be the right insurance for the dog trials.

Melanie Vining-Visitors center:

Forest Service did get a $2500.00 grant to keep the visitors center staffed. 3 days a week, Friday, Saturday and Sunday- 4-5 hours a day.

Marathon:

Ron and Lisa still on board with selling Burritos that morning and 4-H program will still be doing a baked food sale

Adopt a highway:

2 mile stretch, 2 year commitment, free signage for Chamber of Commerce. Everything is included (vests, signs, etc) Lisa Bailey motioned to pursue the idea, it was all in favor

Nikki Zielinski had let the chamber know that there was no way we could pull off a golf tournament in May. There is too many tourneys that are going on and its hard to get sponsors when everyone else is asking for sponsorship.

Chamber donated money for fair awards for $100.00. Chamber chose to buy Market Beef Buckle for the 2018 Fair.

Meeting adjourned: 1:30 pm
